Dear Artist,

General Information:

Photospace primarily exhibits photographic media to support the Australian National University’s School of the Arts Photography and Media Arts Workshop and the schools robust visiting artist program.

Photospace also accepts proposals from artists and curators that work includes some photographic content or reference. There is no gallery fee or commissions taken from sale of work. We encourage proposals of experimental or research based work.

Photospace accepts magnetic or pinned work for ease of transport for artists.

Photospace is an artist run gallery.

Located in the Photography and Media Arts Workshop

Hours: Monday – Friday 10am – 5pm.
Closed on weekends

Information for proposals:

• Shows will be promoted as opening 10am Monday – 5pm Friday.
• Please advise ASAP if you request the show to open on weekends. Artists are responsible to man the show on weekends. A gallery sitter from the student body can be arranged to mind the gallery on weekends for a fee of $150.00 per day.
• Installation of shows should take place on Monday mornings.
• Dismantling of shows should take place at 5pm Friday afternoon.
• Artists are responsible for invites and exhibition flyers.

Artists are responsible for:

• Installation and making good of the space after completion (We can install for international artists on request and provide proof of destruction if necessary.)
• Insurance of work.
• Risk assessment and compliance with Federal and local laws
• Liquor licensing.
• Freight costs.
• Tools, installation devices excepting white paint, putty & rollers and a limited supply of plinths.

Coordinator: Jason O’Brien
Email: Jason.obrien@anu.edu.au
Mail: School of Art Building 105
Australian National University 0200
Australia

Courier: Photospace Gallery c/o Jason O’Brien
School of Art ANU 1st Floor, Building 105
Childers Street Acton 0200 Australia
Photospace web resources: